

HOW TO GET HERE

From the East

Taconic Parkway to the exit for Route 199, Red Hook/Pine Plains. Turn left at the end of the ramp and take Route 199 west to traffic light at the fork in the road. Bear right at traffic light. Continue into village of Red Hook. At traffic light in village, make a right turn. Look for the big blue and white house on your left, one third mile after the light.

From the West

New York Thruway to Exit 19 (Kingston). At the traffic circle, take Route 28 North to Route 209 North. Follow 209 north over the Kingston-Rhinecliff Bridge (have $1.00 handy.) After crossing the river, Route 209 becomes Route 199. At second light bear right on Route 9G. Take a left at the next traffic light (Route 9 north); 2 miles to village of Red Hook. In the center of the village is a traffic light. Go through traffic light and look for the big blue-and-white house on your left, one-third mile past the light.

WHAT IS A BED AND BREAKFAST?

A clean, comfortable room at a reasonable price. A gorgeous Victorian mansion which makes you feel good the moment you walk through the door. Warmth and congeniality that encourages interaction with a diverse group of fellow excursioners. And, to top it off, a killer breakfast that will last you through an active day.

WHAT WE ARE

All of the above and more. This is our home. We're proud of its beauty, and anxious to show it off. We want you to enjoy every aspect of our Inn, from the impressive formal parlors, to the cozy privacy of your elegant and charming bedroom. We're confident that every moment of your stay will be a pleasure, whether diving into your full (and we mean it) breakfast, relaxing on our large front porch, or exploring the endless array of Hudson Valley pleasures. If we can help with information, or planning, or arranging, we'll do it. We are determined that you will have fun.
